Final exam options

You can take it at any of the above times regardless of what section you're in. Of course, if you have another class that conflicts with one of the above times then you'll have to choose one that works. I hope this flexibility will help you plan out your week better and reduce some of the stress that naturally goes along with finals. You don't need to ask for permission to attend any of these... just show up on time and be ready to go, but also, because I've given you three different options already, don't ask for another please :-)
